SCHOOL-BOND ELECTION ORDINANCE DISCUSSED.

BOARD OF EDUCATION FEARS A REDUCTION.

Report of the Council Will Be Made Next Monday—Crowded Condition of the Schools Fully Explained to the Finance Committee Yesterday.

Unless unforeseen circumstances arise the Finance Committee will report the ordinance calling a special election to vote school bonds next Monday. It is still a matter of doubt whether the full amount of $500,000 will be recommended. If library and bridge bonds, as proposed, are to be voted, the estimates of the Board of Education will have to be cut.

Chairman Allen stated yesterday that the committee is in favor of the issuance of school bonds, if they can be legally voted. He said the committee has not reached a final conclusion, but will try and do so before Monday.

Fearful that adverse action might be taken on their request, President W. J. Washburn and G. M. Giffin, J. H. Foley and C. F. Stalling of the Board of Education were in attendance yesterday. Besides Allen, Pierce and Blanchard of the Finance Committee, Councilmen Walker and McLain were present.

President Washburn addressed the committee at the outset. He said that the last school bonds were voted in 1925. So great has been the need for increased revenue that four attempts have since been made to have bonds voted. He said there are fifteen half-day schools in the city, and that the number would be over a hundred but for the unexpected revenue received through the Supreme Court decision in favor of the State in the interest tax cases. He said that the board needs every dollar of the money asked and that in two years the city will have to be sold to provide additional revenue, unless the charter is amended in the meantime so that additional bonds are voted.

In reply to a question from Pierce, City Attorney Mathews stated that the vote on the ordinance calling for a special election will be a referendum test and that it will not be necessary to actually vote the bonds before securing an interpretation of the charter from the Supreme Court. Deputy City Attorney Goudge concurred in the opinion.

Pierce suggested that the probable interest rate of the bonds would be 4 per cent, in order to obtain the maximum of their sale. City Attorney Mathews said he believes that bonds bearing 3 1/2 per cent would sell for a premium, as the New York market is open to Los Angeles securities.

Chairman Allen was inclined to doubt the wisdom of building brick schoolhouses in the outskirts of the city where they would be at variance with the prevailing style of architecture. To this view the members of the board took exception. They maintained that the expense bill for repairs on wooden buildings is very heavy, and that the city cannot afford to build more temporary structures.

Policy declared that the board has not another cent to expend in building additional rooms on schoolhouses, and that the Council should consider the fact that sixty or seventy new rooms have been added in the last seven months and are already full to overflowing. He thought the Council should make some provision for the future.

President Washburn quoted at length from a statistical report compiled by Superintendent J. A. Fosbury and heretofore published. In brief this report shows that the estimates of the board provide for 155 new schoolrooms, that thirty rooms are needed today, and that forty-five more will be required to accommodate the additional 1950 pupils expected next year. This would leave a margin of eighty rooms, which the superintendent thinks would be filled within two years. The report shows a more congested condition than has ever before prevailed. Fifty-seven rooms have between fifty and ninety pupils today.

Nothing was said yesterday about the library bonds, as it is the intention of the committee to make the legal test solely on the school bonds. If they can be issued, over $1,000,000 in bonds, including the school bonds, can be issued. If they cannot be issued under the charter, then no bonds other than those for water and sewer can be issued until the charter is amended.

PEPPER WATSON.

SCORES QUARANTINE OFFICERS.

Life for the quarantine officers is heretofore tinged with the hues of the aureole. It is not a pathway bordered by the trailing arbutus and the morning glory. Each and every American citizen asserts his title to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; also to the right of entering a strenuous objection when deprived of his heritage for even a brief period. Many amusing incidents have come up in connection with the comparatively few cases of light varicella with which the health department has had to deal this year, but the most pretentious "kick" bobbed into the Finance Committee meeting yesterday afternoon.

R. N. Walton, who conducts the Walton House at No. 608 East Second street, thinks he has unusual reason to complain of the treatment accorded him, and he has addressed to the Council a three-page typewritten communication, which contains some gems of thought. Walton has figured out the new-law, and is starting to quarrel with every citizen should try to contract a case of the existing type of smallpox. He even goes so far as to suggest that it could be advertised as one of the advantages of Southern California, and that tourists from far and near would flock to Los Angeles in the hope of acquiring our particular brand of smallpox.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Proprietor Walton begins the recital of his woes by describing how Health Officer Powers and Quarantine Officer Hubbard swooped down on his lodging-house February 20, last, at 3 o'clock p. m. He says they took possession of his premises, and placed police officers about to prevent the forty lodgers from escaping. Walton then explains that when he built the lodging-house he expected to make it larger, and so constructed only the sleeping apartments, thinking to add the bathroom later. Accordingly, when the forty lodgers were imprisoned in the house there was no way of bathing or washing clothes. To his appeal for a wash-bath a small pamphlet article was furnished, which he says was ridiculously inadequate for the use of forty lodgers. The result was that the immortal forty had no baths, and only one change of bed linen in three and a half days.

He complained that the refuse from the kitchen was allowed to accumulate about the lodgers, and they refused. He shut them out, and the quarantine guards shut them back in the hope of acquiring our particular brand of smallpox.

He never took a medicine. Was not sick, and was turned out cured, and had a certificate that he had had the smallpox in twelve or thirteen days.

"If this is smallpox, why not let us all have it, and become immune. People will flock here to have the Southern California smallpox."

absence of Mr. Phillips, the other member of the committee.

"My opinion is formed," commented Dockweiler. "I am as immovable as the eternal hills, but I will not object to a postponement until there is a full board."

He thus ended the second heated discussion of the salary question. The board opened the door, voted the janitor's additional salary, and adjourned. Another meeting will be held to adjust the salary schedule.

SEWER FLUSHERS WHICH IS BEST TANK?

Sewer flushers do not think they are paid enough wages. Five men now do the work which was formerly apportioned among nine. They have to keep a horse and buggy in order to discharge their duties, and receive but $2.25 a day. They demand that their wages be increased to $2.75.

Yesterday two of the flushers appeared before the Finance Committee to urge their claim. Councilman Walker took advantage of the opportunity to ask some hot shot into City Engineer Stafford and the majority in the Council who have given preference to the Miller flush tank over the Walker make.

The Miller tank is a Chicago product, while the Walker tank is manufactured by the Cleveland Iron Works. Two years ago an investigation was made which was decidedly favorable to the Walker tank.

After the investigation was made which was decidedly favorable to the Walker tank, the city continued to purchase the Miller tank.

Both tanks cost $25 apiece. But the Miller tank has a capacity of five gallons per second, while the Walker tank's capacity is seven and one-half gallons per second. This is said to be a point in favor of the latter make.

After the investigation two years ago the manufacturers of the Miller tank came here and expended quite a sum of money in repairs. Nevertheless, the city continued to purchase the Miller tank.

Walker and Engineer Stafford have charged several times this year, and there is a growing feeling that the city is being deceived.

Yesterday Walker made some bitter comments on the city's expenditure. He secured a promise from the city engineer to investigate.

When this investigation was completed the petition of the flushers for a raise in pay was taken under advisement.

HOSPITAL NEEDED.

This protest brings to the attention of the Council the much-discussed question of a detention hospital. There is no doubt that one is needed to protect the hotels and lodging-houses from the purport of the contagious disease. The Finance Committee has never been able to provide sufficient funds for the purchase of a suitable site for the purpose, and twice the Council has been on the point of purchasing a site. Nevertheless, the city continued to purchase the Miller tank.

It is generally conceded that there is no more conscientious officer in the city than the city engineer, and that the city engineer is the most efficient quarantined. With the means at his disposal it is impossible for him to satisfy the wants of those who are quarantined.

Yesterday the Finance Committee distributed a list of names of those who are quarantined. The list shows that the city has a large number of people who are quarantined.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

BYLAWS AGAINST MAILING NOTICES.

JUDGE CONROY MAKES A RULING OF IMPORTANCE.

Ordinary Blanks for Bylaws Used by Many Corporations Require Secretary to Serve All Notices of Meetings to Directors.

Corporations whose bylaws have been quickly drawn on the regulation forms that are for sale everywhere at the stationery stores, will doubtless be given something of a nervous shock when they hear of a novel decision just rendered by Judge Conroy.

The formation of many oil companies and other business ventures during the last two years has made a big demand for bylaw blanks.

A careful reading of the blank will show that a very hard task is imposed upon the secretary by its terms, which the corporation must carry out to the letter or its proceedings will be invalidated.

According to the blank, the secretary cannot mail notices of meeting to the directors, but must serve each director personally.

If he cannot get personal service, the blank provides that he must do so, as follows:

"The president or two of the directors may call special meetings of the directors at any time, and notice shall be given of such called meeting by leaving a written or printed notice at the last known place of business or residence of each director; such service of notice shall be entered on the minutes of the corporation and the said minutes upon being read and approved at a subsequent meeting of the board shall be conclusive upon the question of service."

The secretary shall serve all notices required either by law or by the bylaws of the company, and in case of his absence, inability, refusal or neglect to do so, then such notices may be served by any person thereto directed by the president or vice-president of the company.

This decision was reached by the court in a suit brought by E. J. Young, a real estate agent, who has been suing the Black Geyser Oil Company for services as its secretary at $25 a month during a period of ten months, and the corporation was represented by George L. Sanders, Esq. During the year following, August, 1930, when the stockholders adopted the bylaws, twenty-six meetings of the directors were called and held.

Secretary Young mailed the notices to the directors, and the corporation was represented by George L. Sanders, Esq. During the year following, August, 1930, when the stockholders adopted the bylaws, twenty-six meetings of the directors were called and held.

At these unauthorized meetings the Black Geyser Oil Company ordered the staking of a well on its land at Ballona beach, and spent $4000 on the work. The directors are H. G. Whelan, R. M. Armour, C. F. Rice, and the chairman, F. M. Jones, all of legal point is raised, is the secretary.

"WET" CONCERN. The Bohemian Association of Los Angeles county—one of many "wet" concerns now being organized in the county—filed articles of incorporation yesterday. Its principal officers are as follows: President, H. G. Whelan, R. M. Armour, C. F. Rice, and the chairman, F. M. Jones, all of legal point is raised, is the secretary.

NEW DIVORCES. Divorce suits were begun yesterday by Ashton L. Fife vs. Charlotte Fife, and Mabel E. Johnson vs. Rolly A. Johnson.

UNDER THE FLAG. John W. Hyrons, a native of England, was naturalized by Judge Smith yesterday.

CASE OF SPINKS. The case of Dr. M. E. Spinks against Clark & Bryan, alleging fraud in a trade of Westlake Oil stock for local realty will be argued before Judge Trask next Friday. Three weeks ago the evidence closed, and the case was continued for argument until yesterday, at which time a further continuance was granted to enable Stenographer Welch to transcribe the testimony.

personally liable for the money he collected, which was not duly assessed, when he was without power in the premises?

In deciding the case, Judge Conroy gave Young judgment for $50.

FALSE ARREST.

REESE'S DAMAGES SUIT.

Addison P. Reese of Pasadena filed a suit in the Superior Court yesterday seeking judgment against one Jacques Franc, for damages in the sum of $5000 and costs. Plaintiff's attorney is J. H. Merriam, Esq.

False arrest is the burden of his tale of woe. It is alleged that on February 2, 1931, Reese had in his employ one William V. Bayley, whom he directed to appear before Justice Kianroth and swear to a complaint charging Reese with the crime of battery alleged to have been committed upon Bayley. A warrant was promptly issued, and Reese was soon arrested and imprisoned for a number of hours, and compelled to appear in court for trial.

But on March 5 the complaint was dismissed and Reese was discharged. The arrest of Reese was the subject of the trial, "at the request of Bayley, the justice being fully advised in the premises."

The arrest of plaintiff on the battery charge, says the complaint, was given "great publicity" in the local newspapers, and also in a very important newspaper. The damaged good name and reputation are quoted at $5000.

PRESBYTERIAN
BAER FEAST.South California Laidy
Felicitates.New Assistant Rector
Here for Duty.Chance Meeting With Rev. Dr.
Dowling Leads Him to Los Angeles.It would be difficult to throw more good speeches in an hour, than those which characterized the banquet
of the Presbyterian Laidy Association
last evening, at the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Broadway and Pico streets, Rev. Aquila Webb, pastor.There was sufficient "finger" in every one of them to warrant the enthusiasm
they occasioned, but that audience of 200 Presbyterians fairly tore its clothes in joy over the speech of Rev. Dr. C. R. Dowling, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, as he pictured, in language rich and beautiful, the united front presented by Los Angeles Presbyterians. He compared the denomination to a beautiful and costly vase, shattered by a fall,
and then restored to its original symmetry and magnificence by the master artist, and paid glowing tribute to the First Church and its pastor.The banquet room was tastefully decorated in blue and white ribbons of crepe paper, festooned to the center, then dropping to the floor in such a way as to involve a handsome floral pillow. The tables were adorned with masses of fragrant flowers.GREATEST OF GRIZZLIES.
W. S. Bartlett proved a happy toastmaster, and made some excellent hits as he introduced John Willis Baer of Boston, as "the grizzly bear of the west," who will give us some "bare facts."The souvenirs were small, white satin flags, appropriately inscribed to commemorate the occasion, and having for a centerpiece the picture of a bear, with the word "facts" beneath it."This photograph of me," said Mr.
Baer, as he arose to respond, "is the latest and most correct one. I am old, however, it is used by California
as a token of your opposition to division." [Laughter.]"One thing I want to say, is that the next General Assembly will be held in Los Angeles. (Great applause.)
There is but a doubt in the grizzly about it. You could have won out last year, had it not been for your magnanimity in California, and I am glad to see you here." [Laughter.]"I have not seen such consecrated workers in the ministry, among the laymen, and in the Sunday-schools anywhere. I have never seen anything anywhere to compare with the evangelistic spirit in California, and I am a wanderer on the map of the United States."Mr. Baer paid the highest possible tribute to the Christian workers of Los Angeles, and said that he had resolved to make his headquarters on the Pacific Coast. He received an ovation throughout his address.ONE OF THE PASTORS.
Rev. M. J. McLeod of Pasadena, who rose to respond to "Sightseeing in California," said:"I've been in California about two years. I have never visited Santa Barbara, Monterey or San Gabriel; I haven't been to Baldwin's ranch, and not even to the grizzly. (Laughter.) I've been in Pasadena, and I've learned why Pasadena is like the palm of my hand—because it is a city of two wrists." [Silence—laughter—
great applause.]Mr. McLeod told a number of anecdotes, to illustrate the point that he was selected to respond to that toast, because he didn't know anything about it—and they were well told and created much merriment.R. Z. Perry, recently from Chicago, responded briefly to "The President."
In the course of his remarks, during which he told some good stories, he said:"President Roosevelt is a true American, and he's a thoroughly honest and conscientious one. (Applause.) He's not a Presbyterian, but he's pretty near it, and just as good—(Laughter)— to say it—just as good. (Laughter and applause.) He is the only man who, at the time of his election, understood the resources of the great undeveloped
West."A BEAR IN THE HOLE.
Rev. W. B. Noble, when called upon to respond to "The Next General Assembly," and who, by the way, is one of the clerks of that body, said:"I have been enjoying these good speeches so much that for the moment
I have forgotten my own misery."
He illustrated his misfortune at following so many good talkers, including Mr. Baer, by telling the story of two fellows who were chased by a bull. One climbed a tree, and the other dove into a big hole in the ground. Every time the bull would charge over the hole the man would pop out, and then in again.
The operation was repeated so often that the man in the tree finally yelled:
"You fool, why don't you stay in the hole? You'll keep that bull here all day!""The fellow in the hole yelled back:
"You're a bigger fool than I am;
there's a bear in the hole!"The applause was uproarious. Mr.
Noble then spoke at some length on the General Assembly and on the announcements of the Presbyterian Assembly will do well to be adjourn-because it will adjourn to meet in Los Angeles." [Applause.]BOUQUETS FOR BLUE STOCKINGS.
After a facetious opening, in his response to "The First Church," Rev. C.
E. Stevens said:"I see something deeper and more comprehensive than a mere complimentary affair in this entertainment. I see behind it a real Presbyterian congregancy. (Applause.) I thank God that Los Angeles Presbyterians present
a solid front to the Presbyterian Church, its pastor and its people. (Applause.) I want to congratulate this people upon the presence of a man of God as a leader. (Applause.) In my Latin studies I learned to decline squalor, but I am glad that you people did not decline Aquila. (Laughter and applause.)"Referring to Toastmaster Bartlett,
the speaker said: "If the toastmaster is not two, he is a good sort of a bear."THE BUSINESS MEETING.
At the afternoon business session
Rev. Aquila Webb delivered an interesting address on "The Layman," in which he said:The church is resting upon the unseen power of our laymen. We must depend upon the common man and his great work. My plan is that we recognize more the man who is obscure and unknown in our congregations."It was a strong common-sense talk and won generous applause. Addresses were also made by Giles Kellogg and Joseph Hardie, and there were good vocal numbers by V. Bazata, Sibyl Conklin and R. W. Cox.New officers were elected as follows:
Moderator, W. S. Bartlett; vice-moderator, W. F. Baird, Giles Kellogg; H.
M. Lutz, T. D. Kennerly, J. R. Broad;
secretary, R. W. Bailey; treasurer, W.

ASSISTANT RECTOR NAUMANN.
Rev. Charles W. Naumann, the recently-appointed assistant rector of Christ Church, who came from the East on the invitation of the rector, Rev. George Thomas Dowling, has been for two years and a half the rector of Calvary Episcopal Church, Toledo, O. He brings with him for his new duties a vigorous young manhood, a liberal collegeeducation, and a worthy helpmeet in his wife, who is a graduate of Vassar College.Rev. Mr. Naumann first became acquainted with the popular Christ Church rector at the annual conference at Vassar, when his wife graduated from that institution. The chance meeting was followed by a warm friendship, and resulted in the invitation extended a few weeks ago, when the young minister was the guest of Dr. Dowling in this city. Mr. Naumann, after returning to his Toledo pastorate, made preparations for his change of ministry, and preached his farewell sermon in that city last Sunday night.He entered on his new duties here yesterday, and will participate in Easter services tomorrow.The assistant minister is a man under 30, with a thorough ecclesiastical

School, and later graduated from the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Ohio. Since his arrival in this city
he and his wife have been the guests of Judge and Mrs. A. M. Stephens at

GIVES WAY TO EASTER JOY.
All the ritualistic churches held Good Friday services yesterday, and most solemn day of all the church year. In some of the churches the altars were draped in somber black,
and the organs pealed out dirges in memory of the crucifixion.Today, the transformation is taking place in churches of every creed, and tomorrow altars that have worn symbols of mourning, or at least shorn of all embellishment, will bend beneath their burden of fragrant flowers, Catholic, Protestant, Episcopalian, and every faith blossom, will sing with their beauty and fragrance, of the arisen

Wife of the President of the Elders of the Mormon Church, Salt Lake City, Utah, RecommendsLydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for Woman's Periodic Pains.

Surely the great volume of letters we are constantly publishing from women made strong and well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound must convince all women of the value of this famous medicine.

Does anyone suppose that the young wife of President Jakeman, whose portrait we are permitted to publish, would allow us this great privilege if she had not been so overjoyed at her own recovery that she now wants to be of service to her suffering sisters? No, indeed! No money can purchase such testimony, only a grateful heart full of a desire to help other sufferers could induce a young woman of such high social position to allow her name to be used in connection with any remedy.

How is it possible for us to make it plain that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will positively help all sick women? All women are constituted alike, rich and poor, high and low, all suffer from the same organic troubles. Surely, no one can wish to remain weak and sickly, discouraged with life and no hope for the future when proof is so unmistakable that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure monthly suffering—all women and ovarian troubles and all the ills peculiar to women.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She can surely help you, for no person in America has such a wide experience in treating female ills as she has had. Address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free and always helpful.

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish care and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats.

So highly is the honor of motherhood cherished that sometimes noble women are called upon to give their lives in its attainment. The women who suffer in childbirth and from the effects of miscarriage are the real martyrs. It takes more fortitude to suffer in this way than to meet a violent death in the rush and roar of a battle. But such suffering is almost entirely unnecessary at this age of the world, when Wine of Cardui, the medicine that cured Mrs. Vnrath, of Benton Harbor, Mich., can be secured.

Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Mrs. C. R. Wooding, of Indianapolis, Ind., says she gets through childbirth by using Wine of Cardui. She writes: "I have received great benefit from Wine of Cardui, while nursing my children. I did not have Wine of Cardui until the birth of my second child, and I was so weak with good results to myself and my children. I think it makes the babies better for me to take it. I seem to get through childbirth better by using it too."

With these facts that Mrs. Vnrath, of Benton Harbor, Mich., and Mrs. Wooding, of Indianapolis, Ind., have before the women of America no one who is about to become a mother can afford to fail to take the Wine of Cardui treatment. Wine of Cardui, by reinforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any female ailment except those cases of organic weakness which no doctor or medicine can possibly cure. Belong to that class of inflammatory and disfiguring skin eruptions that cause more genuine bodily discomfort and worry than all other known diseases. The impurities or sediments which collect in the system because of poor digestion, inactive kidneys and other organs of elimination are taken up by the blood, saturating the system with acid poisons and fluids that ooze out through the glands and pores of the skin, producing an indescribable itching and burning, and "I can cheerfully endorse your S. S. S. as a cure for Eczema. I was troubled with it for 25 years and tried many remedies with no good effect, but after using a few bottles of S. S. S. I was entirely cured. Wm. Campbell, 315 W. Central St., Wichita, Kan."

The yellow, watery discharge forms into crusts and sores or little blisters and white scabs that drop off, leaving the skin tender and raw. The effect of the poison may cause the skin to crack and bleed, or give it a scaly, fishy appearance; again the eruptions may consist of innumerable blackheads and pimples or hard, red bumps upon the face. Purification of the blood is the only remedy for these vicious skin diseases. Washes and powders can only hide for a time the glaring blemishes. S. S. S. eradicates all poisonous accumulations, antitoxins the Uric and other acids, and restores the blood to its wonted purity, and stimulates and revitalizes the sluggish organs, and the impurities pass off through the natural channels and relieve the skin. S. S. S. is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier. It contains no Arsenic, Potash or other harmful mineral.

SAN DIEGO COUNTY.

WAR MACHINES PRACTICE.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M. SAN DIEGO, March 28.—The torpedo boat Farragut slipped out of the harbor soon after dark tonight with the full design of technically torpedoing the big battleship Wisconsin, lying at anchor off Coronado Beach. The Wisconsin had been notified that she might expect a visit from the destroyer at any time between sunset and the rising of the moon, about midnight. On board the battleship the same watch was kept and the same precautions as in actual war. The conditions were that the battleship must get within 1200 yards of the battleship before the latter got searchlights on her. Parkes favorably replied to the Wisconsin, and she sneaked along toward the Wisconsin, narrowly missing a picket

When from 1000 to 800 yards from the battleship, the latter's searchlights found the Farragut, and a rocket proclaimed the fact. Those on the Farragut claim that they won, and theoretically sent the battleship to the bottom of the Pacific Ocean. On the Wisconsin, however, it was contended that a rocket which the latter sent up long before the city was within 1200 yards marked the discovery of the Farragut, but just why the searchlight was turned on at that time is not explained.

HARRIMAN HOPES.

Several days ago the Mayor and others wired to President Harriman of the Southern Pacific an invitation to visit San Diego, suggesting that it would be well for him to see the place to which an extension of his road would give the shortest line from Galveston to the Pacific Ocean. This evening the following reply, dated at Volcano, this county, was received:

"Your invitation of March 17 has just reached me. My movements and plans are necessarily somewhat uncertain, but I hope to visit with my party the city of San Diego before leaving Southern California."

Senator Mason's Pass Campaign.

Senator Mason of Illinois, who is a candidate for reelection, has devised a pleasant way for making his ambitions known. He has secured a large number of engraved cards admitting visitors to the reserved galleries of the Senate, and these cards are not only gladly distributed to Illinois people who are in Washington, but are being widely circulated throughout the State. Each card bears these words:

"Good until March 3, 1903. To be renewed thereafter if authority is given." It is expected that this token of respect of a card will see to it that Mr. Mason is in a position to renew the card when it expires.—Washington Post.

Rev. Father J. H. Brinker, pastor of the Catholic Church in Los Angeles, was seriously, perhaps fatally, wounded by the accidental discharge of a revolver.

Mrs. Fred Vnrath

"I am pleased to give my experience with Wine of Cardui as I am very grateful for its help. After my first baby was born I could not seem to regain my strength, although the doctor gave me a tonic which he considered very superior, but instead of getting better I grew weaker every day. My husband came home one evening with some Wine of Cardui and insisted that I take it. I took the medicine and was very grateful to find my strength and health slowly returning. In two weeks I was out of bed and in a month I was able to take up my usual duties. I am very enthusiastic in its praise."

MOTHERHOOD is the noblest duty and highest privilege women can achieve or aspire to. Without this privilege women do not get all there is in life—too often they go through the world discontented, wrapped up in their own selfish

care and troubles. How different is the happy mother, watching her children grow into manhood and womanhood. A mother lives as many lives as she has children—their joys and sorrows are hers, as are their ambitions, triumphs and defeats.

So highly is the honor of motherhood cherished that sometimes noble women are called upon to give their lives in its attainment. The women who suffer in childbirth and from the effects of miscarriage are the real martyrs. It takes more fortitude to suffer in this way than to meet a violent death in the rush and roar of a battle. But such suffering is almost entirely unnecessary at this age of the world, when Wine of Cardui, the medicine that cured Mrs. Vnrath, of Benton Harbor, Mich., can be secured.

Healthy women do not suffer miscarriage nor does a woman who is healthy suffer tortures at childbirth. It is the woman who is ailing—who has female weakness—who fears the ordeal of becoming a mother. Wine of Cardui builds up the womanly in woman. It stops all unnatural drains and strains—irregularities which are responsible for barrenness and miscarriage. It makes a woman strong and healthy and able to pass through pregnancy and childbirth with little suffering. After the ordeal is passed the Wine prepares a woman for a speedy recovery to health and activity.

Mrs. C. R. Wooding, of Indianapolis, Ind., says she gets through childbirth by using Wine of Cardui. She writes: "I have received great benefit from Wine of Cardui, while nursing my children. I did not have Wine of Cardui until the birth of my second child, and I was so weak with good results to myself and my children. I think it makes the babies better for me to take it. I seem to get through childbirth better by using it too."

With these facts that Mrs. Vnrath, of Benton Harbor, Mich., and Mrs. Wooding, of Indianapolis, Ind., have before the women of America no one who is about to become a mother can afford to fail to take the Wine of Cardui treatment. Wine of Cardui, by reinforcing the organs of generation, has made mothers of women who had given up hope of ever becoming mothers. Wine of Cardui will cure almost any female ailment except those cases of organic weakness which no doctor or medicine can possibly cure. How can you refuse to take such a remedy that promises such relief from suffering? Wine of Cardui makes you a strong woman, and every healthy woman do not suffer.
